

Strategic Vision

Chandler will be recognized throughout Vermont and New England as a cultural center of the highest quality. It will be known for excellence in the presentation and interpretation of the performing, visual and literary arts, for its strong commitment to its community roots, and for its impact on the education of youth and adults. Diversity of audiences and programming; support from a wide range of loyal donors, businesses, foundations and government agencies; and a major role in Central Vermont's creative economy will be key to its success.
